If the abstract will be presented by a younger than 40 yo speaker, he/she will be eligible for a dedicated award (flight stipend and registration to attend the following v-HELP humanitarian and educational mission).

"YOUR LANGUAGE-YOUR POSTER" INITIATIVE:

v-WIN foundation Scientific Committee is made by top experts coming from all around the world.

Submit your abstract in your language and v-WIN foundation tutors will be available for reviewing it and eventually accepting it as poster presentation. The best posters will receive free registration to one of the next v-WIN foundation related events.

SUBMISSION:

Submission deadline: September 27, 2020
Send a mail to: info@vwinfoundation.com including:

- Title
- Authors
  (underline the presenting author, who can also not be the first author in order to win the award)*
- Affiliation
- Eventual statement declaring the interest of participating to the "your language-your poster" initiative
- Structured abstract with references

An over 40 yo author can still be the first author of the abstract while having a younger than 40 yo presenting the work, so making him/her eligible for the flight stipend/registration. In case the over 40 yo author is not having contacts with a younger than 40 yo colleague, vWIN foundation has a list of top quality younger than 40 yo talented speakers available to be twinned in the above mentioned work, so also favouring a tutor-mentor relationship among the over and younger than 40 yo colleagues.*

The scientific committee will receive the abstract without authors and affiliation information.
The selection process will be communicated on November 27th. The winner will be selected after the committee evaluation of the speaker performance during the meeting.
In order to receive the award the winner must attend the final session of the v-WINter international inter-university meeting on January 30.
