

Biography curriculum uip2018

Born in São Paulo, Brazil, 1966.

- Vascular surgeon (University of Sao Paulo) 100% focused in Phlebology
- PhD 1995-1999: temperature variation as predictive factor to skin burn by light and skin interaction (DermatolSurg2001;27:549-554)
- President at International Meeting on Aesthetic Phlebology - IMAP
- President at Brazilian Society for Laser in Medicine and Surgery
- President at Hiroshi Miyake Study Center – CEHiM
- Chairman Donor: American College of Phlebology (2008-2013)
- Ambassador at World Congress International Union of Phlebology UIP-Melbourne2018
- Baltic Society of Phlebology Honorary Member
- Brazilian Society of Angiology and Vascular Surgery Member
- inventor of CLaCS Technique
- Creator of the Score 9-1 (ACP Poster Award 2008)
- Pioneer in augmented reality in medicine (veinviewer, 2005)
- Fluent in Portuguese and English, intermediate level in Spanish, French and German
- Father: Hiroshi Miyake, a Brazilian vascular surgeon (retired in 2007) who has been a pioneer in aesthetic phlebology since 1962. His PhD: physiopathology of skin ulcer after sclerotherapy Phlebology2012;27:383-389. He also studied resilient telangiectasias with micro-phlebography in the 70's and developed of the concept of treating by removing feeding veins